JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 23 June 1967

25X1 1. [] Advised Representative Dante B. Fascell that contact had been made with the Tropical Typewriter Company and the $100 bill was paid. (See Journal of 21 June 1967) I advised Mr. Fascell that there appeared to be some confusion concerning this and the group who borrowed the typewriter were quite certain it had been returned within a short time. In any event, the $100 has been paid and a receipt obtained for it. Mr. Fascell thanked me for attending to this item.

25X1 2. [] Accompanied [] OCI, to a 25X1 briefing of Scott Cohen, in the office of Senator Charles Percy, on the subject of the alleged military build up in Cuba. The briefing went well and Cohen seemed quite satisfied with the information provided him. Senator Percy made a short appearance toward the end of the briefing and expressed 25X1 his appreciation also.

25X1 4. [] Gerald Miller called to ask if we could obtain a copy of a report on retirement which according to the New York Times had been presented to Congress. It was determined that this report is one put out by the Senate Special Committee on Aging and we have been promised 25X1 that a copy will be sent through the mail.
